

METAL PROFILE – IDENTIFICATION

When matching in with existing box profile metal sheets or adding roof-light's you will need to identify the profile.

The drawing below shows what dimensions are required to enable a sheet to be identified.

If accurate measurements cannot be taken, then a rubbing should be made on the edge of the profile/sheet. Take a piece of cardboard/paper and rub with crayon/pencil to show the imprint of the panel.

